APPLICATION GUIDELINES

APPLICATION FORMS

Applications are available in two forms:

- Online at www.emba.unc.edu/applyonline
- PDF — print and complete

RESUME

Enclose a current resume, indicating job duties, responsibilities and accomplishments for each position. Account for all of your employment or business activities since college graduation. List any professional certificates that you hold (CLU, CPA, Registered Engineer, Real Estate License, etc.) Also include any professional or community organizations in which you are an officer or an active member. If available, attach a copy of your employer's job description for your current job and/or an organization chart to your resume.

ESSAYS

The essays are used to evaluate your communication skills, so they should be your own work. Please double space, include your name on each sheet and limit your responses to no more than two pages per question. If submitting your application online, please include all essays in one file.

PROFESSIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS

Select three professional colleagues who are familiar with your management experience and potential. Unless you are self-employed, you should include your immediate supervisor or other senior executive from your company. If submitting recommendation online:

- Email notification will be sent to your recommenders upon completion of that portion of the application.
- You will be notified by email after each recommendation is submitted.

If submitting recommendations on paper:

- Print copies of the form in PDF format, visit <http://www.emba.unc.edu/recommendation>.
- You complete "Applicant" portion of the recommendation form.
- Provide a return envelope addressed to you.
- The evaluators will return the completed form to you in the envelope you provide, sealed, with their signature written across the seal.
- Enclose the unopened recommendations with your completed application packet.

STATEMENT ON EQUAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability or sexual orientation. Moreover, the University is open to people of all races and actively seeks to promote racial integration by recruiting and enrolling a large number of African American, Hispanic and Native American students.

CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT

Pursuant to the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, the University publishes a Campus Security Report. The report contains campus crime and arrest statistics as well as information about the University's campus security policies and procedures. Prospective students who would like a copy of the report may request one from the MBA Admissions and Student Services Office.

STATEMENT OF CORPORATE SUPPORT

Ask your supervisor or other appropriate person to complete this form indicating that your company is willing to grant you time off to attend classes. This form is not required for self-employed applicants. Include the completed form with your other application materials. To print copies of the form in PDF format, visit www.emba.unc.edu/corporatesupport.

COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY TRANSCRIPTS

An official transcript of all undergraduate and graduate work is required. Send a return envelope addressed to you with your transcript request. The registrar should send the sealed transcript to you. Do not open the sealed envelope.

Note: Course work toward an MBA degree at another institution will be viewed only as an additional indication of your ability to perform in UNC's Executive MBA Program. No transfer credit is given.

APPLICATION FEE

Enclose the $140 non-refundable application fee with your application materials. The check or money order should be made payable to UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School. Applications received without the fee will not be processed. A separate application fee is required for each program to which you apply.

GRADUATE ADMISSIONS MANAGEMENT TEST (GMAT)

Evening or Weekend Applicants: Complete the GMAT and have the scores sent directly to UNC Kenan-Flagler (code is D40-HL-17). Only GMAT scores from the last five years will be accepted. While we prefer to receive GMAT scores before the application deadline, scores received by the Executive MBA Programs Office within three weeks after the deadline will be accepted. If you have a PhD or master's degree in a technical field, you may qualify for a waiver of the GMAT. To be considered for a GMAT waiver, you must submit a letter requesting the waiver at least one month before the application deadline. The request must also include transcripts of all prior academic work and a resume.

OneMBA Applicants: The GMAT is optional, but recommended if your academic record does not demonstrate strong quantitative skills.

APPLICATION DELIVERY

If not applying online, mail all application materials to the Executive MBA Programs Office in one envelope. The complete package should be postmarked by the application deadline. The address is listed in the "Contacts" section of this application.

Yes No If yes, please explain on a separate sheet of paper.

Have you ever been subjected to disciplinary action by any professional society to which you belong?

Yes No If yes, please explain on a separate sheet of paper.

Have you ever been convicted of or arrested for a violation of the law other than a minor traffic violation?

Yes No If yes, please explain on a separate sheet of paper.

CAMPUS SAFETY QUESTIONS

Your “yes” to one or more of the following questions will not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, your failure to provide complete, accurate and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment. For the purpose of the following six questions, “crime” or “criminal charge” refers to any crime other than a traffic-related misdemeanor or an infraction. You must, however, include alcohol or drug offenses whether or not they are traffic related.

1. Have you been convicted of a crime? (yes, no)
2. Have you entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution of prayer for judgment continued, to a criminal charge? (yes, no)
3. Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime? (yes, no)
4. Do you have any criminal charges pending against you? (yes, no)
5. Have you ever been expelled, dismissed, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college or university? (yes, no)
6. If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge? (yes, no, currently serving, never served)

If you answered “yes” to any of the six questions above, please explain the circumstances below.

You must promptly notify the Admissions Office in writing of any criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, or any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discharge other than an honorable discharge that occurs any time after you submit this application. Your failure to do so will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

HONOR CODE

The Code of Student Conduct provides that it shall be the responsibility of every student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to obey and support the enforcement of the Honor Code, which prohibits lying, cheating or stealing when these actions involve academic processes or University, student or academic personnel acting in an official capacity. It shall be the further responsibility of every student to abide by the Campus Code; namely to conduct oneself so as not to impair significantly the welfare or educational opportunities of others in the University community. As an applicant to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, you are expected to conform to the spirit of the Code of Student Conduct throughout the application process. It is the responsibility of every student to create an environment conducive to a positive learning experience for a diverse student body. This includes fully participating in residency activities, showing respect for other cultures, and appropriately representing the University. Upon enrollment in the University, all students, regardless of their status, agree to uphold the Code of Student Conduct.

Please read and sign the following statement:

"To the best of my knowledge, the information I have provided in this application is a true and accurate account. I understand that misrepresentation of application information is sufficient grounds for denial of admission, for cancellation of admission or expulsion. This application is my own honest statement to the admissions committee."

ESSAYS

Write each essay on a separate sheet(s) of paper, including your name on each sheet. Your essays should be typed, double-spaced and no longer than two pages for each question. These essays should be your own individual work, since they are used to evaluate your written communication skills. If submitting online, please include all essays in one file.

ESSAY TOPICS

1. Summarize your current level of responsibility and decision-making ability in your company. What role do you play in your organization's strategy? What are your career goals for the next five years? What steps do you see yourself taking to achieve these goals? How will a UNC Kenan-Flagler MBA help you reach your goals?
2. What are your primary strengths? What aspects of yourself would you like to improve? What do you hope to learn during the MBA for Executives that will help you refine your strengths and minimize your weaknesses?
3. MBA for Executives students learn a great deal from both the faculty and their classmates. At UNC, they are expected to contribute by interacting with classmates and faculty in study teams and in the classroom. How will you differentiate yourself from your classmates? Provide examples of your professional experiences that will distinguish you from your classmates and will provide valuable insights for them.
4. (Optional) What would you like to tell us that would help us evaluate your application? Or, what unique personal qualities or life experiences outside of work distinguish you from other applicants?
